Miss Sarah Jane Freese,

Bar Harbor, Maine

My dear Miss Freese;-

I note in the list of books in the September 3, 1932 issue of the Publishers' Weekly a notice of your cook-book, The Sunny South and Golden West Cook Book. Are you a Maine person? If you are, will you send us biographical data about yourself? I shall be glad to mention your book in our Library Bulletin, a copy of which I am sending you.

Very truly yours,

Marion Cobb Fuller

Miss Sarah Jane Freese,
R. F. D. #1
Old Town, Maine

Dear Miss Freese:-

Thank you very much for the autographed copy of your book which you sent in response to my recent letter. One of the interesting features of the Maine Author Collection is the variety of the books included in it but there is no other cook-book. Like many other persons, I love cook-books and have always said that someday I shall write one, although probably I shall never have the time nor the patience which writing one requires. I have glanced through The Sunny South and Golden West Cook Book and I am taking it home for further study of the recipes. The list of One-Dish Menus and Casserole Dishes offers many suggestions. I hope that you have a recipe for French pancakes. I have never found one which is entirely satisfactory.

If nothing happens, there will be a Library Bulletin in January and I shall take pleasure in mentioning your book in it.

Very truly yours,

By MCF

Miss Sarah Jane Freese
85½ Smith Street
Bangor, Maine

Dear Miss Freese:

Your letter to Mrs. Fuller was forwarded to her, in Westbrook, because she is no longer with the library. She has, however, returned it to us, because it pertains to your cook book which you presented to the Maine Author Collection several years ago.

It is always pleasant to hear from our Maine authors and to know where they are and what they are doing. Your cook book which you so thoughtfully autographed for this special collection is on the shelves, and wehave always been delighted that you were so interested in the collection as to want to share with us the pleasure of having a copy here.

We assure you that we certainly do consider you a Maine author, and we appreciate your writing at this time. We do not number the books, and this probably is why you have not received the number of which you spoke. We place the books in this collection in alphabetical order, which is a simple arrangement, and makes it possible to find any book at any time.

Many people come to visit the library, and to see the Maine Author Collection. They are always particularly interested to see the different kinds of books in the collection. We very much appreciate having THE SUNNY SOUTH AND GOLDEN WEST COOK BOOK in this special sestion, and also your generosity in autographing and presenting the book.

Please accept our warm good wishes for a most happy Christmas season.

Sincerely yours

hmj
